The Illinois State Rifle Association (ISRA) and Adventure Sports Outdoors magazine and radio will be offering an introductory “women’s only” pistol class on Saturday, February 3, 2007, at the Chillicothe Sportsmen’s Club. Because of the high response, this class is now full. A second session has been added on Saturday, February 17, 2007 at the same location.

This class is called a “First Steps” class. You will receive a pistol booklet, patch, and a certificate of completion. This class will be filmed to help promote women’s shooting sports.

The ISRA will supply firearms, ammunition, safety glasses, ear protection, and lunch! The only thing you need to bring is a comfortable pair of shoes and a baseball type cap or visor.

The cost of the class is only $20.00. If you wish to participate, please fill out the enclosed form and return it along with your payment to the ISRA using the envelope provided. This is a first-come/first-serve basis. If the class fills up, we will schedule a third session at a later date.

I hope to see you in class!
