1825 Hawken Classic 2025

May 17 – 19, 2024

Times: Friday, May 17 – 10am to 5pm
Saturday, May 18 – 10am to 5pm
Sunday, May 19 – Noon to 5pm

Backup Date: September 6-8, 2024
(just in case of Spring river flooding)

Location: The Lewis and Clark Boat House and Museum
1050 S Riverside Drive, St Charles, MO 63301

Activities will include:

1. Incredible collection of original and contemporary Missouri rifles on display.
2. Knowledgeable guest speakers on the history of the Hawken rifle and related subjects.
3. Living history camps in period correct attire.
4. Vendors – including The Hawken Shop, Trail Creek Trade Company, and many more...
5. Artist and craftsmen demonstrating weaving, forging, fire starting, powder horns, leather work and more.
6. Opportunity to shoot black powder from an original Hawken rifle owned by Greg Roberts.
7. See many period correct guns, accoutrement's and enjoy the living history.
8. Test your skills at traditional archery, hawk and knife throw, and fire starting.
9. Come learn how Lewis and Clark and the Hawken Rifle impacted America's history.

Registration documents, lodging options, and more can be found here:

Website: Https://www.GemmerMuzzleloadingClub.com/Hawken-Classic/
Facebook Page: https://www.facebook.com/hawkenclassic/
Facebook Group: Hawken Classic Public Group
YouTube Channel: @HawkenClassic
Instagram: https://www.instagram.com/hawkenclassic/
Send your completed registration form to hawkenclassic@pm.me
Or mail to Hawken Classic, 101 W Country Ln, Collinsville, IL 62234

Contacts
Event Coordinator: Bob Vogt, hawkenclassic@pm.me
NMLRA: Amber May, (812) 667-5131, amay@nmlra.org
Lewis and Clark Boat House and Museum:
(636) 947-3199 or director@lewisandclarkboathouse.org

National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association, PO Box 67
Friendship, IN 47021